

Ceren Aktay Eryılmaz - Having majored in Translation Studies at İstanbul University and currently pursuing her MA degree in the same field, Ceren Aktay Eryılmaz began her professional career as a translator in 2009. Her career path took a turn when she began working as an English teacher in 2011. She has been working as an English teacher and instructor for nearly seven years now, five of which have been at Beykent University. During her time at Beykent University she has taken on the responsibilities of an instructor, a level coordinator, translator, and finally an Accreditation and Quality Enhancement Supervisor.

Gizem Arslan, an English instructor, graduated from ELT, Gazi University in 2012. Since then, she has been trying to help students learn. She began her career as a part-time instructor. One year later, she joined her new family at Beykent University as an instructor, and has been working there ever since. In her second year at Beykent, she became a member of the Curriculum and Material Development Unit and for the past year, has been working as the Head of the Unit. She is also a member of the Institutional Effectiveness and Quality Enhancement Unit, which has been overseeing the accreditation process.