

Bassam Mohamed AlHamad is the Director of the Quality Assurance & Accreditation Center. He is a member of the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) Advisory Board. He holds a PhD degree in Process Systems Engineering. He is an affiliate member of INQAAHE, an ABET Program Evaluator, and an ISO Expert in ISO 9001:2008 & ISO 10015. He is a registered Certified Trainer and a Certified Life Skills Coach with more than 1000 hours of training experience. He delivered more than 350 training programs covering about 8000 persons. He reviewed more than 20 colleges, covering review of more than 100 programs in more than 15 universities. He acted as an assessor and evaluator and provided consultancy for more than 20 Government Ministries and Organizations in Bahrain.