

Bahar Gün holds BA, MA and PhD degrees in ELT. Following an extensive administrative duty at Anadolu University, she started working at İzmir University of Economics in 2003. Between the years 2005 and 2015, she worked as the Assistant Director of School of Foreign Languages (SFL). She currently works as the Head of the Teacher Development Unit in the SFL, and she is also Assistant to the Rector. She is in charge of in-service teacher training and development programs in the SFL. Her research interests include EFL teacher education in general, and teacher cognition and reflective teaching and learning in particular. She is also a CELTA and ICALT tutor, and an OTA trainer. She has presented in many national and international conferences and extensively published in the field of ELT. She is the president of the TESOL in Turkey Association and an executive board member of DEDAK.

<https://tesolinturkey.wordpress.com/>