

Syeda Asiyah Bukhari has been engaged to promote quality culture in Higher Education Institutes of Pakistan to improve the standard of education and research through implementation of practices of Quality Enhancement since 2007. She has a Master's in Educational Planning and Management, a Master's in Biochemistry and a PhD in Biochemistry in progress. She started her experience in the Quality Enhancement Cell (QEC) as Deputy Director in Kohat University of Science and Technology and later joined the QEC of Khyber Medical University (KMU) in 2011 (she has more than twelve years' experience in Public Sector Universities) and recently received became the KMU QEC Director. In the entire tenure of her experience she has successfully achieved the highest category (W) with more than 90% score in the Annual performance evaluation by Quality Assurance Agency in Higher Education. Pakistan.

Syeda Asiyah Bukhari has been awarded funded projects for capacity building of Faculty members and staff of KMU from the Pakistani Higher Education Commission. She has the honor of organizing the 1st International Conference on Quality Assurance in Higher Education in Pakistan, and being a QEC member for Quality Assurance practionners of Public and Private sector Universities. In this connection, she launched the Pakistan Network of Quality Assurance in Higher Education ((PNQAHE). She has participated actively in the International meetings of AQAIIW and has publications pertaining to practices of Quality Assurance in Higher Education.